

Nevada Boys State STATESMAN

June 19, 2018

Today's theme is Courage: "I learned that courage was not the absence of fear, but the triumph over it. The brave man is not he who does not feel afraid, but he who conquers that fear." -Nelson Mandela

"Climbing On With John Beede"

Plan; Act; Achieve

By Starving Man

Why are we here? We are here to build our courage to help us achieve success and become Men. His climb on the Himalayas represents what we can accomplish when we stop letting our minds hold us back and we just move forward. We have more strength and intelligence than anyone else in ALL of Nevada. John also preaches ingenuity. Problems and complications will always happen. They are a simple fact of life, and we can't let them stop us. Just how they sealed the air tank with ice, we have to create solutions to conquer the obstacles in our path; the walls in our path. There will always be people trying to stop us from achieving what we can, but you are shedding blood and tears to achieve something, go for it; no matter what anyone says.

Howard: A Crime Filled City

Benjamin Ballin is a bastion of justice, and if you doubted that before, well, there is no debating it now. Ballin quite possibly made history today, fining not just one delegate but an entire city. The alleged criminals are none other than the delegates of Howard.

Benjamin, freshly appointed as police chief of Martie, was waiting to leave for dinner like the rest of his peers when suddenly the floor's peaceful ambience shifted to a raucous cacophony. The hall adjacent to us had been taken by force, boys running through the halls. Ben snapped into action. One source described Benjamin's

Pedro Martinez is a congenial member of the city of Martie. Despite his city's tendencies to take L's he remains hopeful and persistent. His affable nature and irreverent tone will push him far into the election process for Lieutenant Governor. Vote for Pedro!

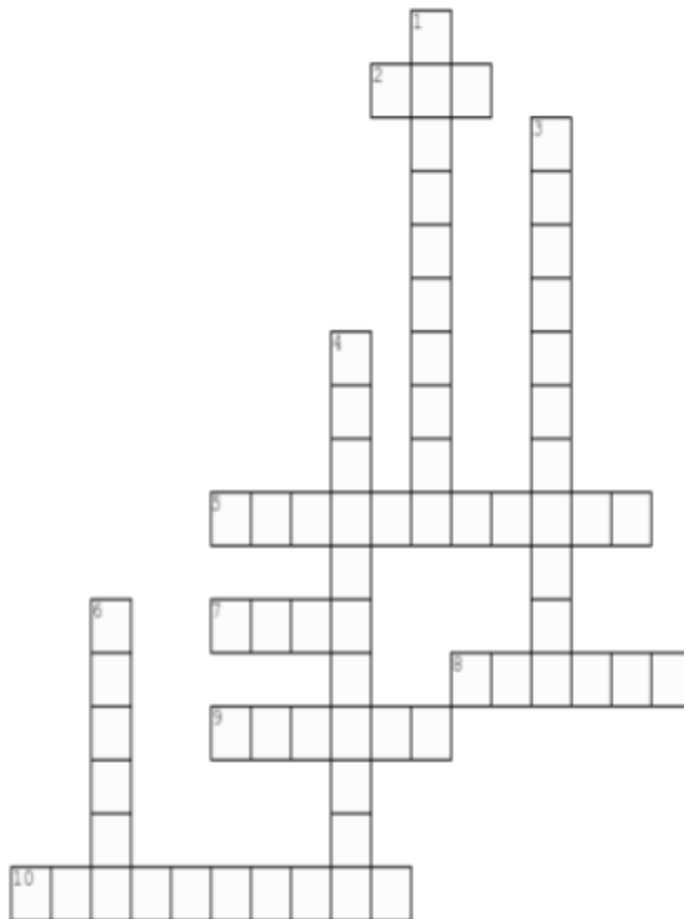

Physical competition took center stage at the introduction of today's morning session. The competitive spirit put the delegates into a spirited mood just in time for our spirited speaker. Tekembe Antonio (right) asserted his Osgoodian dominance over his opponent of Howard. Las Craigas, Osgood, and Jaytown move onto the championship rounds while Howard, Anderson, and Martie fight it out in the consolations for a spot for third.

CONGRATS EVERYONE!!!

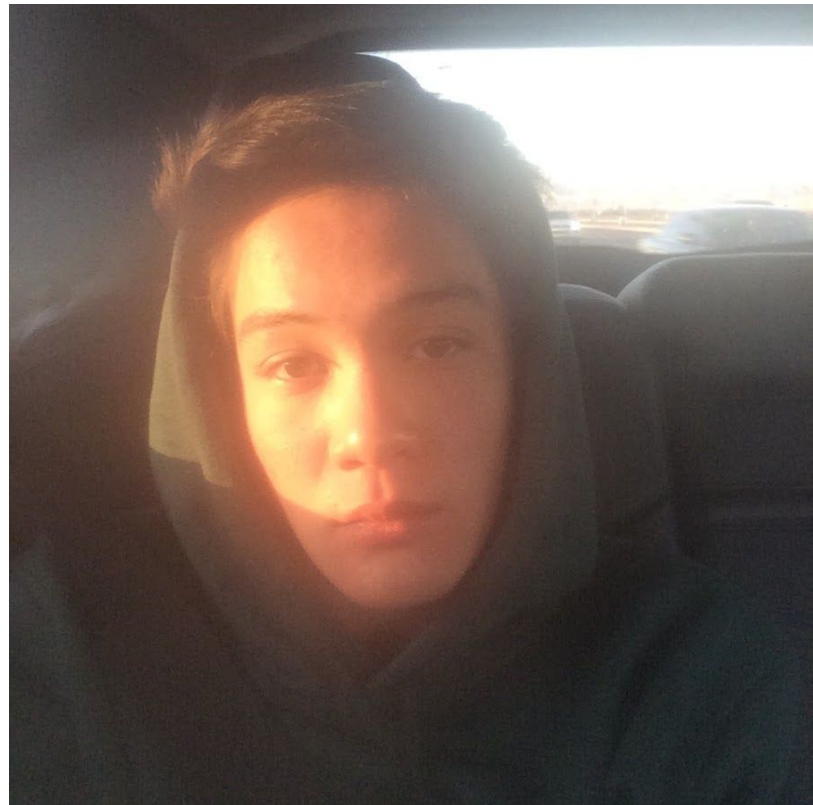

On This Day in History

By Regan Divar

On this day in history, June 18th, 1812, the War of 1812 began between Great Britain and the United States of America. 4th President James Madison declared war on Britain following the Royal Navy's trade blockade to the US, as well as the impressment of American sailors. Impressment is the taking of men into a military or naval force by compulsion, with or without notice. So basically, the evil Brits made it hard for us to trade, then took our boys in the Navy and forced them into theirs, and the war ended in a stalemate 2 years later.

Nationalist Primaries Show Great Promise For Future Statewide Election

The Nationalist primaries conducted electricity; you could practically see sparks fly. The energy in the room, especially the candidates, radiated. A great number of candidates excitedly vied for state party positions, including myself. Though many fear fierce competition, I was glad to be in the eye of such a tremendous storm knowing that the federalists will soon have to face it. The other unsuccessful candidates and I aren't too hurt by the results because we know that Thomas Kyong (chairman), Nikesh Mishra (secretary), and Wyko Salvador (sergeant of arms) are just as hungry for party success as we are. The federalists better watch out because we are coming and coming strong. They call us snowflakes; well, get ready for a blizzard.

Nationalist Party

We believe it is possible to make our nation both free and safe, that liberty and safety can coexist, that there is no doubt that we can direct policy in the pursuit of both. We are the Nationalists, and that government is our tool, by the people, of the people, for the people, that enables us to reach this. Clearly, the right to bear arms is an essential 2nd amendment right, but when 18-year-olds can buy assault rifles but not handguns, when bump stocks enables 58 deaths at a concert, reform by the government is necessary to guarantee access to self-protection but not wholesale murder. Life is precious, so when innocent men are killed needlessly in the electric chair (not the gas chamber), when mothers sometimes may die because bearing children is a threat to their life, the death penalty should not be used so readily, abortion should not be ignored when necessary. Meanwhile, the agenda of the Federalists is an antiquated point of view: that owning a musket is as guaranteed as owning a machine gun, that people once decided guilty are totally guilty, ignoring DNA evidence, that embryos of the first trimester are legally equivalent to an adult.
